ARRIVED .- Our old time and genial friend Joe Evans is paying a visit to Pioche. He is on business for the house of Pond, Reynolds & Co., the well known of Pond, Reynolds & Co., the well known liquor merchants of San Francisco. Joe is too well known and esteemed by our citizens to render it necessary to commend him to their good offices, for we are sure that they, like ourselves, will

A PIRE occurred vesterday in miner's cabin on the other side of the hill. The owner was absent, but some passers by noticed the smoke, kicked the door in and put out the flames, which had already made some beadway. No further damage done than a slight scorch. The fire was caused by some burning brands falling out of the stove.

A KNOCK-DOWN occurred yesterday on the outskirts of town. Cause, whisky; result, an enlarged lip and some very muddy clothes. The combatants were not bloodthirsty, for they adjourned fur-ther consideration of a difficult subject and proceeded to discuss some tangle
